Summary and other Accomplishments

She has started teaching piano from a private studio when she was 19. With over 10 years teaching and performing experience, Alice has a passion for music teaching and believes that all individuals have music potential, and each person deserves access to a comprehensive music education. She offers a balanced and flexible music curriculum which includes: Classical Piano, Jazz Piano, Popular Piano, Ear Training, Sight Reading, Arranging and Composition.

Cheryl began learning piano from the age of 7, and enjoys different music ranging from popular to classical. Cheryl also was involved in her school band, playing the clarinet and saxophone. She has performed regularly with the school band and in piano festivals and competitions.

Cheryl was a student at Musica Academy and is currently completing her teacher training program at Musica. She is also pursuing her Grade 10 Royal Conservatory of Music.

As an enthusiastic music lover she hopes to share this passion with her students. She is excited to be part of the teaching team at Musica Academy
