

Chloe Wong

Teaching Since:	2010
Courses Taught at Musica Academy:	Private Piano, Yamaha Group classes
Teaching Locations:	NW
Music Qualifications:	Bachelor of Music majoring secondary school music Bachelor of Education in Music Grade 10 (Royal Conservatory of Music)

Summary and other Accomplishments

Chloe is a very passionate musician and teacher. She can play the piano, clarinet, flute, and saxophone. She began piano lessons with Betty Lou Beatty at the age of 5 and has since participated in various festivals. She studied music theory with Trevor Bennett and has been a clarinetist since grade 7. Chloe studied music at the university majoring in the clarinet. She took lessons with Dr. Mary Brown and Steve Amsel. She has performed in the University's Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble. Chloe was an enthusiastic student and musician when pursuing her two degrees. She earned scholarships every year including the Alexander Rutherford Scholarship in all three eligible years as well as the Jason Lang Scholarship and several others. Chloe graduated from the University of Calgary with a Bachelor of Music in Secondary School Music, and a Bachelor of Education. She has been a Yamaha teacher since 2010. Nevertheless, Chloe has been attending several trainings in seminars each year to become a stronger and more knowledgeable instructor. She has taught private piano, group theory, JMC, YMC, KC teen, JXC, acceleration courses, and summer camps in Musica Academy. In addition, Chloe conducted in several school bands and choirs including Balmoral TLC, Sir Winston Churchill, James Fowler, Bowness, Valley Creek, Glamorgan, etc. Additionally to teaching at Yamaha Music School, Chloe is also a preschool teacher at Foothills Alliance Schools.