Summary and other Accomplishments

Sara has been playing the piano since the age of 3. She was able to play the keyboard by ear at a young age just by listening to the radio! She was introduced to formal piano lessons at the age of 4.

After completing her grade 8 RCM, she went on to obtain a degree in Biology. Her passion for music led her to return to university to study music, majoring in Piano. In 2013, she graduated with an Honours Bachelor of Music Degree from McMaster University.

Sara has a passion for developing well-rounded musicianship skills from a young age in order to empower lifelong musicians to explore, create, and influence their world. She loves to share the happiness of piano playing with her students at all ages and levels. She strongly believes that any ability can be nurtured by love and patience. Sara loves teaching and is keen to share her passion for music with her students at Musica Academy.
